

RULES & REGULATIONS

EAACI Congress Scholarships

The provided text outlines the rules and regulations for EAACI Congress Scholarships, including the benefits, rules, proof of attendance requirements, payment process, and data privacy considerations.

SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

- A scholarship includes €500 for travel and accommodation expenses to attend EAACI Hybrid Congress 2024. Travel and accommodation arrangements are the scholarship recipient's responsibility
- It also includes a standard congress registration for EAACI Hybrid Congress 2024.

RULES

- Scholarships are meant for the physical registration to the EAACI Hybrid Congress 2024 only.
- If a scholarship recipient cannot attend due to illness, force majeure, or other unavoidable circumstances, the scholarship may be forfeited, and the recipient must justify their absence.
- Scholarships recipients must be EAACI Junior Members at the time of application.
- Scholarships recipients are responsible for all paperwork, including visas and study leave.
- A scholarship recipient is eligible for one source of funding only. If additional funds are available, the EAACI Selection Committee should be informed for reallocation.
- Priority for scholarships allocation is given to applicants who have not received scholarships in 2023.

PROOF OF ATTENDANCE

- Physical presence at the EAACI Hybrid Congress 2024 in Valencia, Spain, is mandatory.
- The scholarship recipient must attend the entire congress from Friday, May 31, to Monday, June 3, 2024.
- Attendance is recorded onsite by signing in and out at the EAACI Campus desk with a national identity card/passport on the first and last days.

SCHOLARSHIP PAYMENT

- Personal bank details must be provided on a secured platform after the congress.
- All contact details should be updated on MyEAACI for smooth operation.
- Payment will be made after the EAACI Hybrid Congress 2024, once physical attendance is confirmed.
